

September 2002

Dear Member of the Zonta association, District 13.

First I will like to thank you for your kind support of my studies here at Australian National University (ANU), Canberra, Australia.

I normally study at Copenhagen Business School (CBS), but have chosen to do my fifth semester outside Europe at the ANU. The reason for this choice was my wish of making my education more international orientated and the chance to improve my English.

Studying outside your own country is demanding, because the study itself and the demands are different. The different demands a very different study technic, than the one I am use to and is a big challenge.

A fourth part of all students at the ANU are international, and almost every part of the world is represented. Working together with so many different cultures demands respect and understanding for other ways of thinking and is a constantly process of learning.

Once again thanks for your support.

Best regards

Louise Ellekilde
